

Adventist University of Africa

Developing Leaders for Service

Call for Applications

CHAPLAINCY FACULTY MEMBER

The Theological Seminary of the Adventist University of Africa announces a faculty position in Chaplaincy. The successful applicant should be willing to take up the position as soon as possible.

About AUA

Adventist University of Africa (AUA), a Chartered University of Seventh-day Adventists (SDA) Church based in Nairobi, Kenya, established by the General Conference of SDA to provide postgraduate education in Theology, Business, Public Health, Applied Computer Science and other fields. The University seeks to deliver outstanding postgraduate education from a Biblical foundation to prepare competent leaders to serve the Church and society in a Christ-like manner.

Qualifications and Skills Required

1. An earned doctorate degree in Applied Theology (with emphasis on Chaplaincy/Christian Counseling) or a doctorate degree in related fields such as Religious Education, Pastoral Care, or Counseling.
2. Minimum of four units of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) and Board Certification (BCC) from a recognized body.
3. Competent to teach and direct graduate studies and research in Chaplaincy and Applied Theology.
4. Able to work with students and faculty in a variety of cultures and ethnic backgrounds in an international setting.

Required Work Experience

1. Minimum of four years of experience in chaplaincy practice.
2. A holder of ministerial credential of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Candidates not carrying a current endorsement from the division BMTE should apply immediately for endorsement.
3. Loyal to the message and mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church evidenced by membership and active involvement in a local church.
4. A minimum of (4) years full-time university teaching experience with two of those years preferably at the graduate level.
5. Scholarly presentations and publications (at least four academic publications in the discipline).
6. Evidence of supervision of project and dissertation.

Summary of Duties and Responsibilities

1. Teach courses in Chaplaincy and in other Applied Theology Programs as would be assigned.
2. Advise Masters projects, DMin and PhD dissertations as would be assigned.
3. Serve in project and dissertation committees of the Seminary as would be assigned.

4. Collaborate with Adventist Chaplaincy Ministries, local healthcare, educational, and other institutions for the delivery of the university chaplaincy programme.
5. Engage in community service.
6. Perform any other assigned responsibilities by the university.

Method of Application

All applications should be submitted to the Human Resources Office of the University with certified copies of academic qualifications, portfolio detailing academic qualifications, work experience, research and publications, and family data.

In addition, three recommendations: two from university administrators and one from a church administrator should accompany the application.

All applications with supporting documents should be submitted electronically to Human Resources Office by April 28, 2023, using hr@aua.ac.ke