

4th Adventist Chaplains World Congress

The Chaplain's Response to a Hurting World

Sheraton Westport Chalet Hotel
St. Louis, Missouri
June 29 – July 2, 2025

Call for Presentations

This congress will train chaplains in all areas of endorsement and all levels of chaplaincy experience.

This Call for Presentations invites proposals from chaplains of diverse disciplines and cultures to present papers examining key issues in chaplaincy from biblical, clinical, practical, historical, and theological perspectives.

Proposals with abstracts of up to 500 words should be sent by September 30, 2024.

Submit your proposal at: <https://acmeditor.typeform.com/Presentation>

DEADLINES:

1. Proposals for papers by September 30, 2024
 2. For those whose proposals are accepted, complete drafts of presentations and presenter release forms must be submitted by January 1, 2025.
- Final files of audio-visual aids such as PowerPoint and Keynote must be submitted no later than May 1, 2025. Additional details on these submissions will be available after your proposal has been submitted and accepted.

Information you will need to have available when you start your proposal application.

- Presentation Title
- Level of information Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced
- Educational Objectives (No more than two)
- Presentation Description

4th Adventist Chaplains World Congress

The Chaplain's Response to a Hurting World

- Curriculum Vitae—A reasonably comprehensive curriculum vitae that demonstrates your qualifications to make this presentation. Please include a list of any professional presentations and/or published works.
- Presentation Proposal—No more than 500 words
- If you have an additional presenter, you will need their contact information, where they serve as a chaplain, their endorsement status, their Board Certification status and where they hold their certification, their ecclesiastical credentials, highest degree held, and their Curriculum Vitae.